

Himachal Pradesh NLU wins Moot Court contest of SLS, Nagpur

■ Staff Reporter

THE team from Himachal Pradesh National Law University was declared the winner of the National Moot Court Competition- 2021, while the team from UPES, Dehradun bagged the runners-up prize. The Best Memorial Award was won by Symbiosis Law School, Pune whereas Namita KG from VIT School of Law, Chennai was crowned as Best Speaker of the National Moot Court Competition-2021. The competition was organised by Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from various prestigious law schools and legal institutions across the country, out of which 10 best teams were shortlisted on the basis of the memorial round.

The preliminary, Semi-finals and the Final Round were held on virtual platform. Adv Uday Dastane, standing counsel for the Agricultural Produce Market Committee, Nagpur; Adv. Sampath Bulusu, General Manager Legal and Corporate Affairs, Shell

Hazaria LNG and Port and Adv. Supratim Chakraborty, Partner at Khaitan and Co. were the Judges for the Final Round. The Moot Proposition was drafted by Adv. Vadeendra Joshi.

The valedictory ceremony commenced immediately after the final round, wherein Dr Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur delivered the welcome address.

Adv Uday Dastane graced the occasion as chief guest and Adv Sampath Bulusu and Adv Supratim Chakraborty were the guests of honour on the occasion.

The chief guest in his address to the participants and the students stressed on the application of canons of interpretation to understand law in its true spirit.

The prizes were announced by Prof Sayalee Surjuse, the Deputy-in-charge of the Moot Court Association, SLS Nagpur.

Saikat Mukherjee, student of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur conducted the proceedings. The faculty-in-charge of Moot Court Association Dr Aditee Godbole proposed a vote of thanks.