The Himachal Pradesh National Law University (HPNLU), Shimla, is launching the Fourth Volume of its annual publication, Shimla Law Review (SLR) (ISSN: 2582-1903). The volume is scheduled to be released in the first quarter of 2022.

SLR is now accepting submissions from academicians (including faculty members and research scholars), judges, and professionals for this volume. The SLR is not a limited review of laws but promotes and prescribes writings with inter-disciplinary perspective. Though, the scope of the content of the SLR is wide, it is advised that the writers should focus on contemporary legal developments, looking at it from the lens of social impact of such developments.

The last date for submission of manuscripts for publication in the Review is extended till November 15, 2021.
