The HIMACHAL PRADESH NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, SHIMLA, is launching second volume of its annual publication, Shimla Law Review (SLR) (ISSN: 2582-1903). The volume is slated to be out in the month of April, 2020. In this connection, submissions under different categories are invited from interested faculty members, research scholars, judges, and professionals. The volume is not restricted to any particular theme and writings with an inter-disciplinary perspective on contemporary practical-social concerns/theories awaiting scholarly treatment are encouraged. The last date for submission of contributions is November 30, 2019. Selection of entries for publication shall be done on the basis of double-blind peer review. Queries about submission of papers and related matters may be directed to: editorslr@hpnlu.ac.in

About the Law Review

The Shimla Law Review is envisioned to be an annual publication, owned and published by the Himachal Pradesh National Law University, Shimla. The Periodical is intended to provide a forum for faculty members, research scholars, judges, students and is not confined to the discipline of law but to take a call on the age old tradition of legal scholarship. It is open to tread beyond the established modes of reflection or exposition on select central ideas, concepts, tools, and techniques that are evidently integral to or associated with challenges posed to laws and legal institutions. Further, SLR does not consider the task of legal education institutions to be confined to merely having devised some expedient ideational mechanism to deal with diverse legal issues.

With such daunting ambitions, the infant SLR, proposes to establish a place for itself. Perhaps, the place where SLR is located- the symbolic seat of the bygone British empire; the topographies of which resemble the terrains of the law, all collaborate to offer and create opportunity for the publication.
