About the CCWS

“Arise, awake, and stop not till the goal is reached” is the motto of the Centre for Child and Woman Studies. It is a specialized research Centre established by Himachal Pradesh National Law University, Shimla, for conducting socio-legal research in the field of rights of women and children. The Centre is created to assist the governments in making better laws and policies pertaining to women’s and children’s rights. The Centre aims to serve as a research and training centre in the field of development of women and children. It further aims to initiate and promote regional, national, and international, collaboration and fund-raising for the cause of women and children.

About the JCCWS

HPNLU Journal of Child and Women Studies is a peer-reviewed journal proposed to be published by the CCWS, HPNLU, Shimla. The maiden volume of the Journal is proposed to be published annually, online and open access journal. The Journal is envisioned to study, analyze, develop, and advance knowledge on legal and jurisprudential issues with an inter-disciplinary perspective keeping Children and Women issues as the focal point.

The Journal appreciates analytical, doctrinal, and empirical research that is aimed at valuable contribution to the field and chosen subject area. CCWS strives to be the premier source for the academic growth and analysis of legal issues. The Centre aims to collaborate with scholars, professionals, news media, and public to deliberate on the complicated issues and challenges pertaining to Children and Women. Along with exploring the various problems and challenges that affect the legal world, the Journal attempts to explore, examine and offer workable solutions, which may prove helpful.
