8 RE-APPEAR AND IMPROVEMENT OF GRADE

8.1 Subject to other provisions of this Regulations, a student of any undergraduate courses shall have to secure 45% marks to pass the course/paper.

For LL.M. one-year Programme a student shall have to secure 50% marks to pass the course/paper.

8.2 A student who failed to secure a minimum pass marks as per Rule 8.1 or absents himself/herself from an examination shall be declared “Failed” in that course. He/she shall appear in the Reappear Examination for that course. If he/she passes the course in the Reappear Examination, the grade obtained shall have ® mentioned against it in the transcript.

8.3 If any student or a group of students, under a common understanding, intentionally absents himself/herself/themselves from any scheduled examination, he/she/they shall not be allowed to write the reappear examination and will be considered “Failed” in that course. They shall have to reappear in the examination for the course as per schedule, after due payment of the prescribed fee. The decision of the Controller of Examination as to whether the absence was pursuant to a common understanding shall be subject to an appeal to the Vice Chancellor.

8.4 The Reappear Examination shall generally be organized with regular Semester Examinations i.e. with Mid Semester as well as End Semester. However, with the approval of Vice Chancellor, special Repeat Examination(s) may be conducted for Students of Final Year in each Programme. The Grades obtained in the Reappear Examinations shall be indicated with ® at the top of the Grade. It is further clarified that repeat examinations shall be for the written examination component only i.e. Mid Semester & End Semester Examination respectively (50 + 25= 75 marks). The marks awarded for assignment/projects and the viva voce shall remain as originally awarded. Students who appear for repeat examination shall be allowed to do so only against the prescribed fee.

- 8.5 Subject to Rule 13.6, students desirous of improving their Grades may apply formally to the Controller of Examinations with the prescribed fee and appear in Reappear Examinations, End-Term examination component only, as mentioned in rule 8.4 of this Regulations. The Grade originally obtained by such candidate at the end of the semester examination will be cancelled and the Grade obtained pursuant to the marks obtained at the Reappear Examinations will be treated as final. However, if student fails to appear in the Improvement Examination, then his original grade shall remain unchanged.
- 8.6 A student who absents himself or herself from assignment/projects and the viva voce component of examination in a paper/subject, shall be allowed to give his/her assignment/projects and the viva voce during regular Semester. Students who is allowed to appear for assignment/projects and the viva voce, component of examination, under this Regulations, shall be allowed to do so only against the prescribed fee.
- 8.7 The fees for duplicate hall tickets, showing of end-term answer scripts, Reappear/Repeat Examinations, Improvement Examination shall be payable as specified in Annexure-II.

9. INVIGILATION OF EXAMINATIONS

- 9.1 Examination duty shall be compulsory for the teaching faculty and the non-teaching staff.
- 9.2 Invigilator-examinee ratio shall be 1:25. For the conduct of Mid/End Semester examinations, there shall be a Centre Superintendent and a Deputy Superintendent and Invigilators.
- 9.3 The COE shall communicate the schedule of examination duties to all the teaching and non-teaching staff prior to commencement of the examination. The Centre Superintendent shall ensure equitable distribution of examination duties, as far as possible in each paper on day to day basis. .
- 9.5 The payment for paper setting, moderation, evaluation of answer scripts, term paper and dissertation shall be made as prescribed under Annexure-I.

10 GRACE MARKS

- 10.1 A student who has failed in any subject, may get grace marks up to not more than 6 marks to clear his paper(s).
- 10.2 A student shall get the benefit of grace marks up to 6 marks only to the maximum of two subjects (i.e. total of 6 grace marks can be divided between two subjects in such cases).
- 10.3 If a student has failed in more than two subjects, grace marks shall be given in the first two papers according to the course code of the Subject.

11. SCRUTINY

- 11.1 A student not satisfied with the marks secured in the End-semester examinations can apply for scrutiny on the prescribed format and by the payment of scrutiny fee as prescribed under Annexure-II.
- 11.2 Scrutiny shall mean the evaluation of un-checked answers and re-checking of the totaling of marks in any given paper. The student is free to apply scrutiny for any number of papers in a given semester. However, for any paper, this facility may be availed only once.
- 11.3 For scrutiny, a student shall have to fill up a scrutiny form which shall be made available by the office of Controller of Examinations.
- 11.4 The Office of Controller of Examinations shall notify the instructions for Scrutiny from time to time.
- 11.5 If there is any change in the marks of the student after the scrutiny, the student shall be provided the revised Mark Sheet on the submission of his original Mark sheet.
- 11.6 If a failed student secures passing marks after scrutiny, he/she shall be entitled for promotion to the subsequent semester without depositing any late fee.

12. RE-EVALUATION OF ANSWER SCRIPT

- 12.1 A student seeking reevaluation of an answer script of an end-semester examination (or Reappear) may apply to the Controller of Examination within 10 days from the date of declaration of results in the prescribed form, and submit fee of Rs. 2000/- per paper. If the result is declared during vacations, the request shall be made within one week from the date of re-opening of the University.
- 12.2 The Controller of Examination shall place the request before the Vice Chancellor. The Vice Chancellor may approve the request and nominate re-evaluator from the panel of examiners to be approved by Board of Studies.
- 12.3 In case of re-evaluation being successful, the student shall be awarded the grade as per the reevaluation. However, if the difference between the original marks awarded and marks obtained in reevaluation is more than 10 marks, the average of the both shall be treated as final award.

13. PROMOTION TO SUBSEQUENT YEAR AND AWARD OF DEGREE

- 13.1 Student securing at least 5.6 CGPA shall be awarded degree/diploma.
- 13.2 Subject to Rule 13.6, a student securing 'C' grade in the requisite number of papers shall be promoted to subsequent year. If a student fails to secure 'C' grade or 5.6 CGPA in the requisite number of papers for the award of Degree she/he may apply for improvement under rule 8. If the student has secured 'C' Grade in all papers, but fails to secure 5.6 CGPA, she/he shall have to improve the CGPA by reappearing in papers of his/her choice.

- 13.3 No student shall be promoted to the subsequent year of the Programme except by way of rule 13.6. If a student who has been debarred from appearing in an end-semester examination due to shortage of attendance in a compulsory paper, she/he shall not be promoted to the subsequent year.
- 13.4 Subject to Rule 13.6, if a student is not being promoted to subsequent year of the program, he/she shall be required to re-register for the said course/courses when these are again offered, by paying the prescribed fees. Such student shall be evaluated for 100 marks (50+25+25).
- 13.5 A student who has declared failed due to shortage of attendance, and not been promoted to the next year of the program, shall require to re-register himself for those said course when they are again offered by paying the prescribed fees. Such re-registered student shall be evaluated for 100 marks.
- 13.6 Promotion Scheme to subsequent years shall be based on the following rules:

For promotion to 2nd year – A student shall have passed 70% of all papers i.e., 08 out of 12 papers of the 1st year.

For promotion to 3rd year - A student shall have passed all papers of the 1st year and passed 70% of all papers i.e., 07 out of 10 courses of 2nd year

For promotion to 4th year, a student shall have passed all courses of the 1st and 2nd years and passed 70% of all papers i.e., 07 out of 10 courses of the 3rd year

For promotion to 5th year, a student shall have passed all courses of the 1st, 2nd and 3rd years and passed 70% of all papers i.e., 07 out of 10 courses of the 4th year.

14. CREDIT SYSTEM

- 14.1 Credit connotes the unit that gives weight to the value level or time requirement of a course. 01 Credit shall be equal to 15 Teaching Hours. If a course has 6 papers in semester, and each paper is having 4 Credits, then the total credits of the paper of the Semester shall be calculated $4 \text{ (credits per paper)} * 6 \text{ (number of papers)} = 24$ (Total Credits of the Subject).
- 14.2 Grade Value shall mean the value assigned to the marks obtained by a student in a paper. Grade value is based on 10-point scale.

- 14.3 Letter Grade shall mean the Alphabetical Grade/s determined on the basis of Grade Value obtained by the Student in a paper. The Grade Value on 10-Point Scale, and the letter grade to be given to the student, is on the basis of Grade Value obtained by the Student. The Table given below shows the marks range, grade value and corresponding letter grade.

Sr. No.	Marks Range (Out of 100)	Grade Value (10-point Scale)	Letter Grade
1	90 and above	10	A+ (Outstanding)
2	80 and above but below 90	09	A (Excellent)
3	70 and above but below 80	08	B+ (Distinction)
4	60 and above but below 70	07	B (Good)
5	50 and above but below 60	06	C+ (Average)
6	45 and above but below 50	05	C (Pass)
7	00-44	00	F (Fail)

* No round off shall be allowed in calculating Marks Percentage.

For Example: In a paper, if a student secures marks in the range of 70-79, the Grade Value for that paper shall be 8, and the latter Grade for that paper shall be B+ (Distinction)

- 14.4 Grade Point shall be calculated by multiplying the Grade Value obtained by the student and the Credits of that paper. For example, if the student secures the Grade Value 08, and the Credit of the paper is 04, then the Grade Point of the student in that paper shall be $8 \times 4 = 32$
- 14.5 Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) of a student shall be calculated as the sum total of the Grade Points secured by the student in all the papers of a semester divided by total Credits (sum total of credits of all the papers in that semester) in a semester.

For Example: If there are 6 papers in a semester, and each paper is having 4 Credits, total Credits of the Semester shall be calculated as $6 \times 4 = 24$.

If the student is securing grade points as 24 (GP1), 28 (GP2), 32 (GP3), 32 (GP4), 36 (GP5) and 40 (GP6) in Paper 1 (P1), Paper2 (P2), Paper 3 (P3), Paper 4 (P4), Paper 5 (P5), Paper 6 (P6), respectively, then the SGPA shall be calculated as $(GP1) + (GP2) + (GP3) + (GP4) + (GP5) + (GP6)$ divided by the total credits.

Therefore, $SGPA = (24 + 28 + 32 + 32 + 36 + 40) \div 24$

So, the $SGPA = 192 \div 24$

$SGPA = 8$

- 14.6 Quality Points (QP) is the sum total of all the grade points obtained in semester.

For Example: $GP1 + GP2 + GP3 + GP4 + GP5 + GP6 = \text{Quality Points}$.

There for, QP is: $24 + 28 + 32 + 32 + 36 + 40 = 192$

- 14.7 Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) shall be the sum total of Quality points of all the Semesters of a course till date divided by Total Credits of the Course till date. CGPA shall be considered up to two decimal places.

$CGPA = \text{Total Quality Points in a Course} \div \text{Total Credits of the Course}$

- 14.8 The calculation of CGPA in the second semester and the consecutive semesters shall be done according to the following formula:

$CGPA \text{ of semester II} = QP I + QP II \div \text{Total Credits of Semester I + II}$

Similarly,

$CGPA \text{ of semester III} = QP I + QP II + QP III \div \text{Total Credits of Semester I + II + III}$

Other semester's CGPA shall be calculated in the like manner.

- 14.9 The Division obtained shall be calculated on the basis given bellow:

Sr. No.	CGPA	Division
1	8.45 and above	First Division with Distinction
2	6.45 and above, but below 8.45	First Division
3	5.6 and above, but below 6.45	Second Division

- 14.10 University degree shall be awarded to the students securing C or above grade in all of its papers, and an overall CGPA of not less than 5.6.
- 14.11 The Conversion formula for converting CGPA to the corresponding percentage of marks shall be as follows:

$$X = 10Y - 4.5$$

Where X = Percentage of Marks; Y = CGPA; 10 is 10-point scale, and 4.5 is the mean value of Class Interval of marks range.

15. Rules against 'Unfair means' and Committee against Use of Unfair Means in examinations

- 15.1 There shall be a Committee against Use of Unfair Means in examinations constituted by the Vice Chancellor.

- 15.2 The Committee against Use of Unfair Means shall submit report/recommendations to the Controller of Examinations who shall impose the penalty with reasons in writing. An appeal can be made to the Vice-Chancellor who shall uphold/reduce/condone the penalty.
- 15.3 Unfair means and other malpractices in relation to the examination shall mean as specified in Annexure-III.

ANNEXURE-III

Guidelines on Use of Unfair Means in Examinations

No candidate shall use unfair means or indulge in disorderly conduct at or in connection with examinations

Here "Candidate" means an examinee taking an examination. Examination means any examination, Mid-Term, End-Term, Project, Assignment etc. which are considered as part of assessment/evaluation for awarding grades/marks in a subject.

UNFAIR MEANS SHALL INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

1. During examination time having in possession or access to
 - a. Any paper, book, note or any other unauthorised material which has relevance to the syllabus of the examination paper concerned.
 - b. Mobile Phones or any electronic gadget other than calculator, even in switch off mode, which can potentially be used for communication or copying.
 - c. Anything written on any other instrument or any kind of furniture or any other substance which may have relevance to the syllabus of the examination of the course paper concerned.
 - d. Anything written or signs made on the body of the candidate or his/her clothes/garments, handkerchief etc. which may have relevance to the syllabus of the examination paper concerned.
 - e. Anything written on the question paper which may have relevance to the syllabus of the examination paper concerned.
2. Giving or receiving assistance in answering the question papers to or from any other candidate/person in the examination hall or outside during the examination hours.
3. Talking to another candidate or any unauthorised person inside or outside the examination room during the examination hours without the permission of the invigilating staff.
4. Swallowing or attempting to swallow or destroying or attempting to destroy a note or paper or any other material.
5. Impersonating any candidate or getting impersonated by any person for taking the examination.

PUNISHMENT

A candidate found using unfair means or involved in disorderly conduct or disturbing other candidates, at or in connection with an examination shall be referred to the Disciplinary Committee relating to Use of Unfair Means in Examination. The committee shall consider the UFM cases as referred to it by the Controller of Examinations. The committee may recommend for awarding one or more of the following punishments:

1. Cancellation of the examination of the paper in respect of which he is found to have been guilty; and/or
2. Cancellation of the examination of the semester examination for which he/she was a candidate and/or debarring from examination for future semester(s).
3. Any other punishment deemed suitable by the committee.

NORMS OF PUNISHMENT

The following norms for punishment are laid down.

1. If the candidate is found having in his possession of any material relevant to the syllabus of the examination paper concerned but has not copied from or used it,
 - a. The punishment will be the cancellation of the examination of that particular paper and he/she will be awarded F grade in that paper with all the consequences to follow. However, if the material found in possession of the candidate is of insignificant nature the punishment may be relaxed to the extent that he/she will be given the chance to reappear in the examination.
2. If a candidate is found to have copied from or used the material caught,
 - a. The punishment will be the cancellation of the present semester examination and he/she shall be awarded F grade in all the papers of that semester with all the consequences to follow.
3. If the candidate is found talking to another candidate or to any unauthorized person inside or outside the examination hall during the examination hours without the permission of the invigilator his examination in that paper may be cancelled and F grade will be awarded in that paper with all the consequences to follow.
4. If the candidate is found reading or possess some incriminating material relevant to the syllabus of the paper in Examination Premises, his/her examination in that particular paper or his whole semester examination depending on the gravity of the offence shall be cancelled.
5. If the candidate is found giving or receiving assistance in answering the question papers to or from any other candidate/person in the examination hall or outside during the examination hours, his/her examination in that particular paper will be cancelled and F grade will be awarded in that paper with all the consequences to follow.
6. If the behaviour of the candidate on being caught is unsatisfactory or the candidate uses resistance/violence against the invigilator or any person on examination duty or consistently refuses to obey the instructions, the above punishments may be enhanced according to the gravity of the offence as deemed fit by the Unfair Means Committee.

All such cases shall be reported to the Academic Council in its subsequent meeting.

PART-IV

SAVING

- 1. Removal of difficulty: The Vice Chancellor is authorized to make necessary changes in these Regulations to remove difficulty and bring it in consonance with the corresponding statutory requirement.
