About Nelson Mandela International Day

We celebrate Nelson Mandela International Day every year to shine light on the legacy of a man who changed the 20th century and helped shape the 21st. This is a moment for all to renew with the values that inspired Nelson Mandela. Absolute determination. A deep commitment to justice, human rights and fundamental freedoms. A profound belief in the equality and dignity of every woman and man. A relentless engagement for dialogue and solidarity across all lines and divisions. Nelson Mandela was a great statesman, a fierce advocate for equality, the founding father of peace in South Africa.

In times of turbulence, Nelson Mandela shows us the power of resisting oppression, of justice over inequality, of dignity over humiliation, of forgiveness over hatred. As the world takes forward the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and strives to overcome new sources of adversity, let us recall the lessons of Nelson Mandela's life, and the essential humanism that guided him: "For to be free is not merely to cast off one's chains, but to live in a way that respects and enhances the freedom of others."

The Nelson Mandela Foundation will be framing Nelson Mandela Day 2022 around its food and nutrition programme, under the theme "Do what you can, with what you have, where you are"

About the Training Programme

In collaboration with the Institute of Correctional Administration, Himachal Pradesh National Law University, Shimla is organising a 3-day outreach training programme on 'Mandela Day: Prisoner Reintegration' from the 4th July to the 6th July, 2022 at Shimla for Prison Officers. Social reintegration can be understood as the support given to prisoners during re-entry into society following imprisonment. A broader definition, however, encompasses the period starting from prosecution to release and post-release support.

In the prison setting it refers to assisting with the moral, vocational and educational development of the imprisoned individual via working practices, educational, cultural, and recreational activities available in prison. It includes addressing the special needs of prison inmates, with programmes covering a range of problems, such as substance addiction, mental or psychological conditions, anger and aggression, among others, which may have led to offending behaviour. Reintegration encompasses the prison environment, the degree to which staff engage with and seek the cooperation of individual prisoners, the measures taken to encourage and promote contact with family, friends and the community. It also refers to opportunities provided for prisoners' gradual re-entry into society, such as furloughs.

The main aim of this out-reach training programme is to sensitize the prison officers about their role in prisoner reintegration and various initiatives be undertaken by them for prisoners' reintegration.
